It was an amazing experience to be in the world’s flattest drag strip, to witness the annual Arabian Drag Racing League. The final part of the Round 1 took place 15th January at the Qatar Racing Club where cars and motorcycles of over 3,000 horsepower gathered to compete in the title of “King of Speed” in the Gulf region and beyond.

Mohane Al-Nasri from Qatar in his 13 chevy camaro beat Al-Baldawi from U.A.E at a record of 5.745 Top speed 297.7MPH to win Round 1 in Pro modified title.
Christina Alatrash of the Al-Anabi racing from Qatar emerged the champion in the Junior dragster category.
Hussam Yusuf in his 92 Ford Mustang won the Super Street & Cylinder category at a record of Low E.T. 4.192. Top speed 108.70.
Mohamed Salma from Bahrain defended his title by winning the 4.50 Index. He drives a 2000 Pontiac.

Not only is Rashid Al-Hajri a defending champion in the SuperStreet Bike category, but he is also the champion in the Qatar Mile and the Qatar National Street Drag. Amazing right??

As a record of Low E.T. 5.117, Top Speed 141.92, Mafir Al Mafir on his 04 Suzuki HD came first to scoop the title in the Real Street category.

Mister hails from Kuwait.

Mohd Hay on his 92 Nissan Skyline from Bahrain came in first place in the SuperStreet 6 Cylinder, setting a record of Low E.T. 4.955, Top Speed 189.31.
Mo Ali from Al-Arabi on his 14 Chevy Corvette bagged number one on the Outlaw 10.5 category.

His daughter Christine also won the Junior Dragster. What a memorable moment.
